

San Francisco State University
College of Extended Learning
Spring 2004

Resonant Leadership

Where Your Wisdom and Knowledge Meet

www.cel.sfsu.edu

Contact Kim Workman, program assistant, at (415) 405-7777 for additional program information.

Resonant Leadership: Where Your Wisdom and Knowledge Meet

When a leader triggers resonance, you can see it in people's eyes: They are involved and they light up. Passion and enthusiastic energy build as they do their best work. When leaders develop the inner side of leadership they increase their ability to make resonant choices instead of habitual ones. Their decisions then reinforce what matters, with strong and positive impacts in service excellence, collaboration and increased productivity.

Women inside and outside the corporation are making it a priority to develop this inner side of leadership. This workshop explores the contribution these women leaders make and how to strengthen their impact and results.

In this class, you will:

- Explore critical challenges and powerful solutions on the road to an inspired and integrated leadership.
- Discuss decision-making strategies that make the link between core values and effective execution.
- Discover essential building blocks to successfully integrating the feminine and masculine attributes of leadership for bottom line results.
- Learn the methods other senior women use in building powerful networks and leveraging contacts for maximum mutual benefit.
- Leave this workshop with the first steps of a plan to develop the fullest expression of your leadership, connecting your inner wisdom and knowledge in a professional life that reflects your core strengths and contributes significantly to work performance.

Instructors: Maureen A. Simon, B.A., an American and Irish citizen, blends 25 years of experience in international business consulting, marketing and community development, including serving to mediate political conflict in Ireland and Eastern Europe. Certified as a coach, Maureen is an acclaimed teacher and speaker, conducting seminars around the world. She maintains practices in London and San Francisco. Karen Wilhelm Buckley, M.A., principal, Communicore Consulting, has 23 years experience partnering with leaders in corporate, government and non-profit organizations. Karen is a published author in the field of organizational change and innovation, a Fellow of the World Business Academy, a member of the Spirit in Business Global Institute Board and producer of the highly successful Women's Forum in June 2003, San Francisco.

CE 8555 Section N01 Schedule No. 27807

- Saturday, May 8, 2004, 9:30-4:30pm,
- San Francisco State University Downtown Center, 425 Market St.
- $165

To Register

9 am-6 pm, M-Th; 9 am-5 pm Fri.

in person:

College of Extended Learning Downtown Center
425 Market Street, 2nd floor (at Fremont Street)

by phone:

(415) 405-7700 and press [5]

The following courses support the creative change process and are powerful additions to this program:

Fearless Speaking: Discovering Your True Voice

Dynamic Communicating: Presenting Your Best Self

A Brush with Creativity: Engaging Your Creative Process Through Painting

Go to www.cel.sfsu.edu for course details and faculty biographies.